

Denni Day lectures at Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine

VetPharm's president, Denni Day, was invited to speak to first- and seventh-semester students at Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine (RUSVM) on St. Kitts in the Caribbean. Denni presented her lectures Clinical What? (An Introduction to Veterinary Clinical Research) – for first-semester students – and Think Outside the Practice (Careers in Veterinary Clinical Research) – for seventh-semester students – in January 2008. Both lectures were filmed and included in RUSVM's guest lecturer archive.
